

PLM Business Analyst–Consultant (m/f)

 REFERENCE NUMBER
1_US

 LOCATIONS
Livonia

TASKS

- › Work with business units and other stakeholders to gather information. Using techniques like interviews, work sessions, storyboarding, and prototyping
- › Elicit, analyze, document, and communicate business requirements
- › Understand project scope, project goals, product functionality, and desired features
- › Evaluate customer needs/issues, analyze business processes, assist in evaluating alternatives, and determine appropriate solutions with IT staff
- › Help determine level of effort and time required for solution delivery
- › Define user stories with applicable acceptance criteria in collaboration with business subject-matter experts
- › Analyze high-level business requirements and translate them into more detailed user stories
- › Assist with development of test plans, test scenarios, and test cases
- › Participate in testing and analysis of testing results as needed. Assist with troubleshooting and providing recommended solutions
- › Identify and assist in resolving issues, questions, and scope/requirements gaps quickly and effectively enable delivery and support of applications

PROFILE

- › Bachelor's degree in Computer Science or Engineering preferred
- › Minimum of 1–3 years of experience with: Teamcenter Unified PLM, CAD Software (NX, CATIA, CREO)
- › PLM best practice development and process design
- › PLM software configuration and code release management
- › Management of custom software development/coding team
- › Knowledge of databases, server setups, hardware analysis Other PLM/PDM application experience would be a bonus Demonstrated leadership teamwork and collaboration in a professional setting
- › Excellent written and oral communication skills
- › Travel to customer locations as required (+75%)

Phone:
eMail: jobs@piterion.com